

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Online Privacy Policies

Online privacy policies determine the method that Al Wasata Company follows to protect the personal data and information that are obtained from the Company's website when you enter them upon using the website. Such policies describe the content of personal information that we collect and how we process and protect it.

Information Collection:

When you register at our website, we collect information related to you including, but not limited to, your name, address, email, telephone number, city, job etc.

Additionally, we automatically register some information from your computer and browser including IP address, software and hardware characteristics.

Information Use:

The collected information may be used for the following purposes:

- Responding to your individual needs upon using electronic trading program
- Improving customer service and your technical support needs
- Contacting you through the email

Private E-Commerce:

We are the sole entitled party regarding the information collected on this website. Personal informational will not be sold, exchanged or transferred; in addition they will not be given to any other company for whatever reason without your consent.

Disclosure to Third Parties:

We do not sell trade or transfer your personal information to third parties. This does not include reliable trusted parties that help us to operate our website on the internet or conduct our business as long as we both agree to keep the information confidential.

We also believe that it is possible to exchange information to fulfill/prevent/ take procedures related to illegal or suspicious activities in which there is a suspicion of fraud or violation of terms of use. Moreover, non-personal information may be provided to other parties for marketing and advertising or other uses.

Information Protection:

We apply a number of security procedures in order to keep your personal information safe. We use encryption system to protect sensitive information being transferred online. On the other hand, some personnel may be granted permission to obtain personal information upon doing specific tasks like invoices or customer service.

It is worth mentioning that personal information is kept at secure environment on computers/servers used for storage.

Cookies Use:

Cookies allow an improved access to our website and identify the frequent visitors; we also use them to enhance the users' experience through tracking and targeting their interests. Such use for cookies is not, in any case, connected to any personal information on our website.

Unsubscribe:

Al Wasata Securities Company uses the email that you provide us with to send you information and updates related to your requests, besides other news. If you wish, at any time, to unsubscribe from receiving emails, please inform the Company.

Consent and Changes might be made to this Policy:

By using our website, you agree to the privacy policy. Occasionally, the Company may change the terms through updating the page. Therefore, you should check these conditions from time to time to make sure that they are convenient to you. It is to be noted that such changes will be effective at the time they appear on the page.